Late Coming Policy & Rules for employees:

It has been observed that many employees are coming to work late in the morning. Timely attendance at the workplace should be ensured. Everyone is required to be punctual to office.

The office timings are from 9.30 a.m. to 6.30 p.m. daily from Monday to Saturday.

Lunch Hour shall be 1.30 p.m. to 2.00 p.m.

Set off Against Leave for Late Coming;

In case of two late coming one day casual leave should be deducted.

The company had decided to deduct earned leave of the employees who come late to office for more than 3 days in a month.

For 4th and 5th late markings, quarter day leave for each late marking shall be deducted.

For every next late marking half day leave shall be deducted.

Late / half day attendance / full day leave:

Any employee reaching the office till 10.30 a.m. shall be considered as late.

An employee reaching office between 10.30 a.m. and 11.30 a.m. shall be considered as on leave for first half of the day.

No employee will be allowed to enter office after 11.30 a.m. It will be deemed that the employee has taken a leave for the day.

Deduction of monthly salary:

Any leave beyond 2 days of leave calculated as above in a month will be considered as Leave without pay.

Human Resource Policies and Procedures Manual

1.1 Purpose of this manual

The purpose of this manual is to provide specific guidelines for the management in daily HR procedures within Vision4. It is not intended to prescribe step by step guidance for every eventuality, but defines the policies that the procedures should support. Compliance with these policies and procedures are considered to be a condition of employment at Vision4

The objectives of this HR Manual are to:

a) Provide detailed information about Vision4 human resources policies and procedures as well as conditions of employment for its staff;
b) Set out and communicate the policies and procedures formulated to assist management in making people management decisions and form the basis upon which Vision4 work culture and environment is developed;
c) Outline the basic rules, regulations and procedures that bind the employee as part of his/her contract of employment;
d) Act as a guide for new employees;
e) Serve as an operating guide for the HR staff to manage employee's affair fairly and consistently
f) Act as a reference document for the management and staff in handling human resource & administration issues;
g) Acts as a guideline for the efficient and effective operation activities.

1.2 Scope of this manual

The manual prescribes policies and procedures to be followed by the Vision4 human resource and operational management as approved by Board of Governors. The Manual has been designed to provide clear and precise guidelines in respect of HR activities.

1.3 Authority and Update of this manual

The project manager with the help of the Board shall be responsible for ensuring timely and accurate modifications/updates to the Manual. No modification shall have effect unless approved and notified by the Board.

All employees shall be considered as have read this manual and any amendments that shall be made as and when necessary. Section Heads shall ensure that all staff below them is made aware of all sections of this Manual which cover their terms and conditions of service. Ignorance of any of these regulations shall not be accepted as an excuse for failure to act upon any matter or comply with the regulations as laid down in the Manual.

The users of the HR manual may suggest changes and amendments to the existing HR policies and procedures with the approval of head of relevant Sections.

Every modification, once approved, shall be circulated by the HR office to relevant management personnel for acknowledgment. HR officeshall maintain a log of all updates.

Although every attempt has been made to anticipate all situations requiring formalized policies, however, circumstances may arise which are not covered in the manual or a situation may warrant deviations from the stated policy. These cases shall be resolved by a decision taken by the Management Committee in order to prevent the appearance of prejudice or bias which may occur if the decision is taken by any one individual.

1.5 Manual Holders

Copies of the Manual shall be provided to the following officials of Vision4:

a) Project manager;

In cases where the total leave has been exhausted by the employee and there is no leave balance to adjust the late coming, the whole of the extra leave so calculated will be considered as Leave without pay.

Pro rata salary would be deducted for such Leave without pay within the particular month

Reimbursement of extra deduction, if any, at the beginning of the next Calendar year:

At the end of the calendar year account of all such leaves will be set off against the earned leaves and if the employee is found to have balance leaves after adjustment of leaves so deducted he /she would be reimbursed the extra amount so collected out of his monthly salary, during the calendar year.

Such reimbursement would be done along with the salary of the first month of the new calendar year.
